FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Conservancy for Cuyahoga Valley National Park Offers Planned Giving Seminar

PENINSULA, Ohio (Wednesday, September 12, 2012) – The Conservancy for Cuyahoga Valley National Park will offer a presentation on the different ways that individuals can make a legacy gift in support of Cuyahoga Valley National Park. A panel of highly-skilled financial professionals will explore the creative options available for structuring a gift that is tailored to each guest's unique financial circumstances. Potential donors large and small will find this presentation informative.

Topics to be addressed include wills and bequests, charitable gift annuities, gifts of life insurance and gifts of property.

The seminar will take place from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 20 at the Boston Store Visitor Center, located at 1550 Boston Mills Road in Peninsula. Guests are asked to RSVP by contacting TRAILS FOREVER Director Dave Telfer at 330-657-2909 x106 or dtelfer@forcvnp.org.

The seminar is offered free of charge by the Conservancy for Cuyahoga Valley National Park. There is no obligation or cost to our guests.
